A photograph of a spa area. In the foreground, three wooden lounge chairs with light blue towels are arranged on a wooden floor. Behind them is a large glass window with a frame made of dark, vertical wooden poles. The window offers a panoramic view of a lush green mountain landscape with a terracotta-tiled roof in the mid-ground. The sky is overcast.

Spa Del Bosque is an elegant organic spa located at El MaPi hotel in Machu Picchu village, with a panoramic view of the Amazon Cloud Forest.
