

THE ULTIMATE TO DO LIST

LATIN AMERICA

THE CLASSIC SAFARI COMPANY

Est. 1992

Cusco & Machu Picchu

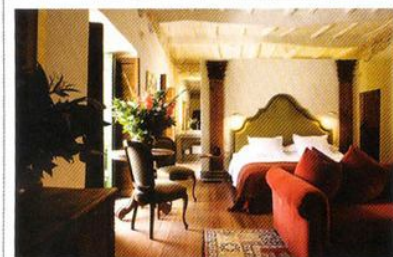

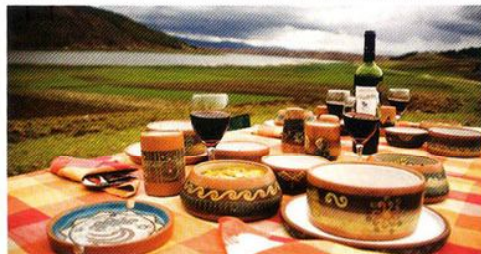

Visiting enchanting Cusco, high up in the Andes, is like walking through a living museum of Peruvian history. Colonial churches and mansions sit atop granite Inca walls and streets are still known by their indigenous Quechuan names. As the ancient Inca capital, Cusco is the gateway to the Sacred Valley, a basin that cradles scenic highland villages and the Inca Trail that leads to Machu Picchu. Amongst green-coated mountain peaks perpetually swathed in ribbons of clouds,

INKATERRA ITINERARY

Seeking the sumptuous side of Peru? Inkaterra offers experiences befitting the realm which was once the South American jewel in the Spanish crown.

Inkaterra itineraries are utterly opulent, absolutely customized and cater for extraordinary expectations. Featuring their three exclusive properties: Inkaterra Reserva Amazonica in the Southern Amazon jungle, Inkaterra Machu Picchu Pueblo Hotel and Inkaterra La Casona in Cusco – they create tailored, exclusive trips to connect you with nature, adventure, culture — and each other. From the Amazon to the Andes this is an astounding adventure to share with friends and family.

INKATERRA LA CASONA

Inkaterra La Casona is an exquisite 16th century colonial mansion located in the heart of Cusco, the historic Inca capital. As the first Peruvian hotel to become a member of the exclusive Relais & Châteaux, La Casona is the standard-bearer of excellence.

Lovingly restored to its original splendour for its 2009 debut, the building authentically retains the patina of a bygone era. And with only 11 suites, the luxurious boutique hotel exudes the intimacy and romance of a private home. La Casona landed on Condé Nast Traveller's 2011 'Gold List' of the world's best hotels and Travel + Leisure's 2009 'It List'.

HOTEL MANSIONS

Discover the architectural wonders of the Inca Empire, which is considered to be the most important of the Inca and Central cultures. The ancient city of Machu Picchu is a masterpiece of Inca architecture and engineering. The site is a UNESCO World Heritage site and is one of the most important archaeological sites in the world. It is a testament to the ingenuity and skill of the Inca people.

THE SACRED VALLEY

The Sacred Valley is a beautiful region in the Andes, known for its stunning views of the snow-capped peaks of the Andes. The valley is a UNESCO World Heritage site and is one of the most important archaeological sites in the world. It is a testament to the ingenuity and skill of the Inca people.

Inca trail in the Sacred Valley

the phenomenal 'lost city of the Incas' sits like a proud lion. Approach by hiking the fabled trail or aboard a train – making sure you see the ruins at sunrise.

1. Inkaterra La Casana
2. Hotel Monasterio
3. Rio Sagrado Hotel
4. Machu Picchu Lodge to Lodge Trek
5. Inkaterra Machu Picchu Pueblo Hotel
6. The Machu Picchu Sanctuary Lodge

i More Information

Visit our website for more photos and information for all the properties, tours and experiences featured.

Church of Santo Domingo

INKATERRA MACHU PICCHU PUEBLO HOTEL

This luxury boutique hotel is tucked inside the Machu Picchu Historical Reserve. Spread out over 12 acres of tropical cloud forest, the intimate Inkaterra is designed to feel like an Andean village. Eighty-five one and two-storey cottages nestled into terraced hills, feature alpaca blankets and fireplaces and are connected by lovely stone pathways. Spa services use sublime natural essences, and a first-class restaurant boasts stunning views of the Vilcanota River.

Guided nature excursions include observing endemic birds, sacred pre-Inca pictographs, and 372 types of native orchids in the hotel garden.

THE MACHU PICCHU SANCTUARY LODGE

At the edge of the Machu Picchu Historical Reserve, the Sanctuary Lodge is a modern hotel with a traditional Peruvian feel. The Machu Picchu Sanctuary Lodge is a modern hotel with a traditional Peruvian feel. The Machu Picchu Sanctuary Lodge is a modern hotel with a traditional Peruvian feel.

MACHU PICCHU LODGE TO LODGE TREK
 This trek is a combination of a Machu Picchu tour and a trek to the Inca ruins of Machu Picchu. The trek starts in the town of Aguas Calientes, where you will take a train to Machu Picchu. The trek is a combination of a Machu Picchu tour and a trek to the Inca ruins of Machu Picchu. The trek starts in the town of Aguas Calientes, where you will take a train to Machu Picchu.

National Reserve, visit an indigenous community, or take a nighttime canoe ride in search of the terrifying reptilian caimans.

1. Amazon River Cruises – Peru
2. Delfin Amazon
3. Tambopata Research Centre
4. Inkaterra Reserva Amazonica

i More Information

Visit our website for more photos and information for all the properties, tours and experiences featured.

DELFIN AMAZON

Deep in the Peruvian Upper Amazon, the Delfin and Delfin 2 cruise boats provide take you into the world's largest protected floodplain, the Manu Biosphere National Reserve. In this vast unspoiled haven, an incredible array of birds, mammals, the world's largest butterfly, and other rare species that can be viewed during the day excursions. Managers also include visits to native villages, offering it a variety of special opportunities to work with local people, taking butterfly-hunting, and night safaris in the rainforest.

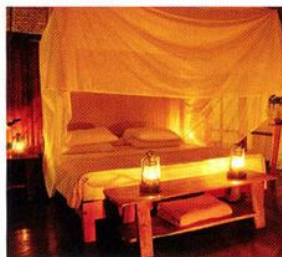

Each vessel is like a floating boutique hotel. Wood-paneled suites are fitted with comfortable mattresses, luxurious linens, private bathrooms, and air conditioning. The specially outfitted Delfin 2 offers four premium suites, which have amazing floor-to-ceiling windows, a private terrace overlooking the Manu Biosphere National Reserve. The Delfin 2 provides the ultimate Delfin and Delfin 2 cruise with service, amenities and world-class cuisine and service.

TAMBOPATA RESEARCH CENTRE

The Tambopata Research Centre is a world-class eco-tourism lodge adjacent to the world's largest intact forest. In the heart of the unspoiled wilderness of the Tambopata National Reserve in the southeastern Peruvian rainforest, this world-class operation is the headquarters for explorations of Peruvian nature and wildlife.

Established to conduct and study the region's forest reserves, Tambopata has for more than 20 years been a base of international scientists studying the local wildlife, plantlife, and genetic diversity, birds and animals. The forest neighbors the ultimate guide to biodiversity study.

INKATERRA RESERVA AMAZONICA

Founded in 1975 by a Peruvian film producer, this luxury all-inclusive eco-resort sits in the middle of an ecological reserve in the Amazonian rainforest. Remote yet accessible, Inkaterra is perfect for families and adventurous honeymooners.

Featuring 35 comfortable, indigenous-style cabañas and a spa located on the banks of the Madre de Dios River, Inkaterra has been named 'Best Jungle Lodge of South America' by the Latin American Travel Association. Exciting excursions include a trip to the spectacular 344m (1129ft) long and 30m (100 ft) high canopy walkway, which includes an overnight stay at the brand new Tree House.