This re-creation of an Andean village at the foot of Machu Picchu is "a truly gracious property." Set amid waterfalls and gardens, whitewashed casitas with eucalyptus beams are set off stone paths. "It feels like someone dropped you into a peaceful paradise, even though there's so much hustle and bustle right outside the gates." "Rustic rooms" have colorful Peruvian blankets, local art, and views of the orchard gardens or the Vilcanota River. At the café, order Andean dishes and pisco sours.
