

INKATERRA AWARDED AT ETC'S RESPONSIBLE TOURISM SHOWCASE

Inkaterra was awarded on the the annual ETC Responsible Tourism Showcase Award, an award where the Education Travel Conference recognizes the efforts of those members that are constantly working on developing or implementing initiatives for sustainable tourism. This year Inkaterra was awarded for more than 38 years of effort on promoting sustainable tourism in Peru, through which the organization offers authentic experiences following the principles of sustainable of sustainability, focusing on preserving and rescuing Peru's geography, nature, traditions and cultures .

From the 23rd till the 27th of January, the 27th Annual Educational Travel Conference took place at Orlando, Florida at the Renaissance Hotel at Sea World. The event gathered world tourism representatives, suppliers and government destination in this five day summit where seminars, forums and meetings about the travel industry and education of nonprofits-in-travel and the industry partners that supports them.

